

September 15-17, 2023
Fr. Lawrence Carney
Devotion to the Holy Face

Friday, Sept. 15

(Feast of the Sorrowful Mother)

2 pm Doors Open
3pm Chaplet of Divine Mercy
4 pm Holy Mass
5 pm Dinner Break
6:30 pm Holy Rosary
7:00 pm Fr. Carney
8:00 pm Blessing with Relic

Saturday, Sept. 16

8:00 am Doors Open
8:30 am Holy Rosary
9:00 am Holy Mass
10:30 am Fr. Carney
11:30 am Lunch Break
1:00 pm Shroud of Turin Display
2:00 pm. Fr. Carney
3:00 pm Adoration (Exposition and Benediction). Prayer Teams
4:15 pm Blessing of Religious Items
Followed by Dinner Break
6:00 pm Fr. Carney
7:00 pm Q and A
7:30 pm Final Blessing

Sunday, Sept. 17

8:00 am. Holy Mass

Stabat Mater Chapel The Chapel is located within the Sanctuary. The Blessed Sacrament is reposed there.

Chapel of Mary, Reconciler of All People and Nations is dedicated to Our Lady as she appeared to Servant of God Maria Esperanza. It contains many artifacts of Maria Esperanza and the Shrine in Betania, Venezuela.

Fr. Peter Rookey Chapel is dedicated to our friend and mentor, Fr. Peter Rookey, world-renowned healing priest.

Chapel of the Church Triumphant/Confessional
This chapel contains numerous relics of the saints, including several First Class Relics. Our confessional is found here.

Chapel of the Holy Sepulcher is located behind the house of Mary and Martha. You may access through the gate along the alley directly North of the Sanctuary. The Blessed Sacrament is reposed there during retreats.

Prayer Teams OSMM members will be available to pray with you for your intentions. Please make use of this opportunity for individual prayer with our teams.

OSMM Store Visit our store in the lobby and reception area of the Sanctuary. We have books, sacramentals and many religious items to enhance your spiritual growth. The store is open during all breaks and meal times.

*We pray this weekend is a time of healing and hope for your journey.
May you encounter the merciful and loving God.
Mary, Our Mother of Sorrows, pray for us.*